

Charleen is our project manager who is working diligently on our new building. Charleen has 20 years experience in the field of construction. As parent liaison Charleen works persistently to involve our families with fundraising and other school events. Charleen has a child that attends CECPB and this is a project that is very near to her heart. Charleen and her husband Joe have been major supporters of our school by volunteering for countless hours.