

Clarence is a Paraprofessional at Connections Education Center of the Palm Beaches with over twenty years of experience, in both Mental Health and Behavior Services. He is a Motivational/Inspirational speaker and a published author with 2 books.

Mr. Turner served honorably in the United States Army and is a service connected disabled veteran. He is a licensed Life Insurance Agent in the states of Florida, Georgia and North Carolina. Though Mr. Turner's hobbies are fishing and reading, he enjoys writing and working with children the autism spectrum to be the best they can be.

Throughout his training and experiences, Mr. Turner accredits his lifelong achievements to his years as a Drill Sergeant in the United States Army. This training taught him how to adapt improvise and overcome life's toughest challenges both in his personal and professional career.