

Julie is a Paraprofessional at Connections Education Center of the Palm Beaches. She has worked with children for over 10 years. She is an accredited preschool educator. Julie has known she wanted to work with children since she was five years old on the first day of preschool. She enjoys coming to CECPB and seeing all the student's bright faces.