

Michael is an ASD teacher with Connections Education Center of the Palm Beaches. In this role, Michael coordinates all aspects of classroom, and more so oversees theater education and occupational education.

Michael is a big believer in Autism Awareness and volunteers with the Elks of West Palm Beach, who supports all individuals with developmental delays and veterans.

Michael is a qualified Special Education Teacher and holds a Master's degree from Dowling College in Oakdale, New York.

Michael is no stranger to Special Education, having spent 8 years as an educator at Eastern Suffolk BOCES in Long Island, NY and as a theater educator at the Performing Arts High School in Times Square, NY, where he created and implemented entire new Theater Arts Curriculum. Michael has more than 15 years of teaching experience in Special Education, Elementary Education, and Theater Education.

Prior to starting his education career, Michael has spent over 20 years as an owner/operator of POTR, Inc. Theater Company and was Resident Director of CM Performing Arts Center in Oakdale, NY. Here in South Florida, Michael has had the opportunities of opening several successful restaurants, as the General Manager of many.

Passionate about Special Education (and more importantly the Autism Spectrum, Michael provides educational/vocational services that help the ASD students at Connections Education Center of the Palm Beaches for students from 11-14.