

Patrikka Georges is an Occupational Therapist at Connections Education Center and has been with us since we opened. Patrikka has a diverse professional history and has been working with pediatrics and children with ASD since 2007. She is knowledgeable and passionate about sensory strategies and input for children. She uses a variety of treatment strategies and approaches to meet the need of each child individually. Patrikka earned her bachelor of science in Occupational Therapy May 2002.