

Stephanie wears a lot of hats at Connections Education Center of the Palm Beaches, Stephanie has 20 years experience working within the special needs community. Stephanie plays an integral part of the administration team at CECPB. When she is not making sure that all students have breakfast and lunch she is busy helping to make sure that the school is running smoothly in all aspects. Stephanie is the liaison between the school and the school's families (not just the student).